reddog

is proud to launch Australia's first pure merino motorcycle clothing street-wear range designed by riders for riders

The MOTO340 Winter Range:

uses the highest quality Australian & New Zealand pure merino wool, for optimum:

Next-to-Skin Comfort
Thermal Control & Insulation
Moisture & Odour Management Breathability
and of course Style

Designed for cold climate riding:

with thumb loops, motorcycle-elbow and extra body length when riding. It's lightweight and non-bulky so it fits comfortably under protective riding jackets.

You no longer have to look and feel like the Michelin man when riding in cool weather conditions.

reddog

pure merino bike gear is:

As warm as a jumper
but without the bulk

Lightweight and quick drying (making it ideal for touring)

Stylish
both on and off the bike (wear it to work, wear it out)

Thin and lightweight

Easy-care
(Machine wash and line dry)

Purely Australian (with a guarantee of animal welfare)
